DON'T WHIP YOUR HORSES,-A friend calls our attention to the fact that many teamsters do not remember that it is often easy to back the large hird wheels of wagons over obstacles which it is impossible for the horses to back the small fore wheels over.

If your horses back the large hird wheels over obstacles, don't whip them because they cannot back the fore wheels over them.—From Our Dumb

NO GRACE IN NEW YORK.-The Governor of New York has signed a bill to abolish the custom of allowing three days' grace on notes. It is claimed by the advocates of the measure that year ago, when traveling was slow and uncertain, and mai's irregular, three days of grace, to cover accidents, were both convenient and necessary, but that now they are useless. The bill will, of course, not interfere with any existing contracts.
